

Please do not permit such use. Airfones are available for emergency/important situations. Most cellphone users are not considerate of others when talking on the cellphone and on planes this intrusion would be exacerbated by the lack of personal space. Allowing such use would only encourage the most inconsiderate of this group. Let them use the airfone or send text messages, but no voice.